CATHEDRAL CURATE TO SERVE AS DEACON-IN-CHARGE

The Rt. Rev. George D. Langberg, Bishop of the Diocese of the Northeast, Anglican Church in America, has announced that he has appointed the Rev. Mr. Jeffrey Monroe to serve as Deacon-In-Charge and Pastor of Holy Trinity Anglican Church in Fairfield, Maine. Deacon Monroe currently serves as Curate at the Anglican Cathedral of St. Paul in Portland and will continue in that position.

Deacon Monroe was ordained to the Transitional Diaconate in 2004, and since then has served as Curate of the Cathedral as well as Supply Clergy at St. Margaret of Scotland Anglican Church in Conway, NH; St. Michael's Anglican Mission in Holderness, NH and St. Stephan's Anglican Mission in New Sharon, Maine. The orthodox Anglican parishes are part of the Anglican Church in America (ACA), which is the American Province of the global Traditional Anglican Communion (TAC).

The worldwide Traditional Anglican Communion continues in the Catholic Faith, Apostolic Order, Orthodox Worship and Evangelical Witness of the traditional Anglican Church. They seek to maintain the unbroken continuity of that tradition within the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ, and repudiate all deviation or departure from the Faith, in whole or in part. They hold Holy Scripture and the ancient Creeds of the Undivided Church to be authentic and authoritative, and they worship according to the formularies of the Traditional (pre-1970's) Book of Common Prayer.

The worldwide Traditional Anglican Communion has members in North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia/New Zealand. Bishop Langberg is the Bishop Ordinary of the Diocese of the Northeast which includes all of New England and NY and is President-elect of the ACA House of Bishops. The Rev. Dr. Brian R. Marsh of New Hampshire is Bishop Suffragan for the Diocese. The ACA has eight parishes and missions in Maine and nine parishes and missions in New Hampshire.

Holy Trinity Anglican Church is located at the Asa Bates Memorial Chapel, 2 Ten Lots Road in Fairfield. Services are Sunday at 10:00 am. For more information call 453-2909.
